Clean energy
Energy connectivity
Black Sea strategic submarine electricity cable for enhanced mutual resilience

Deployment of a submarine electricity cable between Georgia and the EU to export green energy from the South Caucasus to Europe.

17 December 2022 Meeting in Bucharest and signature of an Agreement between Black Sea countries supported by the European Commission.
2023 Ongoing support to reforms in the energy sector and investment in renewables. Feasibility study completed with first decisions on way forward.

Partner countries

Objectives

Partners

Implementation stage

€2.3 billion total investment (estimated)