

EUROPEAN UNION -PALESTINIAN AUTHORITY ACTION PLAN

POLITICAL CHAPEAU

A new Action Plan

The Palestinian Authority (PA) and the European Community (EC) first established contractual relations in 1997 when the EC and the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO), for the benefit of the PA, concluded an Interim Association Agreement on trade and cooperation. On the basis of this agreement, the EU-PA European Neighbourhood Policy Action Plan was signed in May 2005. Within this framework, EU-Palestinian relations have witnessed in recent years a significant development, with the resumption of the activities of the Joint Committee, the establishment of initially four subcommittees and the launching of the political dialogue. On the Palestinian side, the PA has proven its ability to be a full partner within the European Neighbourhood Policy (ENP) through active participation and fruitful exchanges. On the EU side, the landmark Foreign Affairs Council Conclusions of December 2009 put forth the path for renewed EU engagement with the Palestinian Authority by expressing the EU's commitment to "further develop its bilateral relations with the Palestinian Authority reflecting shared interests, including in the framework of the ENP."<sup>1</sup> This development is a result of the increased capacity demonstrated by the Palestinian side in implementing its reform agenda and within the ENP. The first step was to increase the number of ENP subcommittees to enable a more effective and policy-driven dialogue with full involvement of civil society. As our dialogue deepens and our partnership matures, this new Action plan, building on EU's long standing support to the PA's statebuilding efforts, is the appropriate framework to define the way forward.

A privileged EU-PA partnership

In recent years, EU-PA relations have focused primarily on supporting PA's state-building efforts, as defined within the framework of its two-year Government plan from 2009 Palestine-Ending the occupation, Establishing the State and the Palestinian Reform and Development Programme (PRDP) 2008-2010, both of which the EU has supported politically and financially. The Palestinian National Development Plan (NDP) 2011-2013 consolidates the achievements of the previous programmes. The Palestinian side has been working on an ambitious reform agenda making a strategic choice to anchor its socio-economic development with that of the EU. As the major and most predictable donor to the Palestinian people, the EU has responded and been instrumental in the successful institution-building effort of the PA. In this regard the EU has concurred with the assessment of the World Bank and other international financing institutions that "if the Palestinian Authority maintains its current performance in institution building and delivery of public services, it is well positioned for the establishment of a State at any point in the near future". This assessment was reiterated by the donors at the Ad Hoc Liaison Committee (AHLC) meeting hosted by HRVP Ashton on 13 April 2011 in Brussels and once again in September 2011. On the basis of the reports of the United Nations (UN), the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank, the participants acknowledged that "the PA is above the threshold for a functioning state in the key sectors they studied, and that Palestinian institutions compare favorably with those in established states"<sup>2</sup>. The donors reconfirmed their assessment of the state readiness of the PA regarding the institutions studied at the AHLC held on 21 March 2012 in Brussels.

The EU as a global player in a changing neighbourhood/world

EU-Palestinian relations take place in the context of the overall changing political situation in the region and in the paradigm of the EU's defining role and added value in global governance, "which is reflected in its active support for democracy, the rule of law, the protection of human rights and human security alongside compliance with international environmental and social conventions, open trade as well as decent work agenda."<sup>3</sup> As the EU responds to its changing neighbourhood especially the Arab Spring through a review of its European Neighbourhood Policy, it has a particular interest and responsibility in proactively promoting democratisation leading to stability and prosperity in the region. In particular, recent events in the Neighbourhood have shown "the necessity of heeding the legitimate aspirations of the peoples in the region, including those of Palestinians for statehood."<sup>4</sup> The EU continues to follow closely developments regarding the Palestinian initiative at the UN.<sup>5</sup>

The Palestinian Authority will be among the first partners to have a new Action Plan reflecting the new response to a changing neighbourhood based on differentiation, mutual accountability and a shared commitment to universal values, international law, international human rights standards, democracy and the rule of law. The new EU approach entails closer political association and progressive economic integration into the EU Internal Market for those partners who are willing and able to move further in their reform objectives. It aims at a higher level of differentiation, allowing for each partner to develop its links with the EU based on its own aspirations, needs and capacities, but also on mutual accountability and the degree of commitment to the above-mentioned universal values, as well as the capacity to implement jointly agreed priorities.<sup>6</sup> The subcommittees are the ideal tool to monitor the implementation of these priorities and their conclusions will be reflected in the work of the Joint Committee, as well as in the EU annual progress report.

In parallel, the EU is increasingly seeking to target its resources where they are most needed and where they could make the most difference. Hence, its external instruments, of which the Palestinian people will be a beneficiary, will be more closely linked to progress in implementing reforms. In this regard, the EU's financial assistance to the Palestinian people shall be closely aligned with this Action Plan's key policy objectives. In line with best practices in development co-operation, the EU and Member States will consult with each other and co-ordinate their programming.

Achieving the objectives outlined in this Action Plan is linked to the capacity to address the challenges imposed primarily by the occupation, as well as by the current division between the West Bank and the Gaza Strip, the current uncertainties surrounding the PA fiscal sustainability as well as by the ongoing lack of progress in the Israeli-Palestinian peace negotiations. These factors seriously jeopardise the achievements of the PA.

A commitment to a two-state solution

The EU reaffirms its commitment to a two-state solution through the creation of an independent, democratic, contiguous and viable State of Palestine, living side by side with Israel. EU support to the prospect of a Palestinian state and to the legitimate rights of the Palestinian people is a concrete translation of the EU's long standing commitment to the two-state solution.

The two sides reiterate their commitment to contribute to their mutual goal of a resolution of the Middle East conflict based on the terms of reference mentioned below.

The EU has defined its positions as regards the Middle East Peace Process (MEPP) in the Venice Declaration of 1980 and has developed it since then in various Foreign Affairs Council Conclusions, in December 2009, December 2010, May 2011 and May 2012 as well as in the Statement delivered on behalf of the EU at the UN Security Council on 21 April 2011. Recalling the Berlin Declaration of 1999, the EU reiterates its readiness to recognize a Palestinian State when appropriate. In line with the Quartet Statement of 23 September 2011, the EU will actively support additional steps identified towards Palestinian statehood and will support in accordance with existing procedures significantly greater independence and sovereignty for the Palestinian Authority over its affairs including steps that would facilitate the social and economic development of Area C.

The EU reiterates its support to Palestinian reconciliation as outlined in the Foreign Affairs Council conclusions of 23 May 2011. The EU considers that the situation in and around Gaza remains fragile and unsustainable, as long as it remains politically separated from the West Bank.

Recalling its previous Council conclusions on MEPP, the EU continues to call for the immediate, sustained and unconditional opening of crossings for the flow of humanitarian aid, commercial goods and persons to and from the Gaza Strip and in particular between Gaza and the West Bank.

The EU recalls the applicability of international humanitarian law in the occupied Palestinian territory, including the applicability of the fourth Geneva Convention relative to the protection of civilians.<sup>7</sup> The EU calls for the full respect of international human rights obligations towards all Palestinian prisoners.<sup>8</sup>

The EU underlines the urgent need to re-launch the peace process so as to achieve a two-state solution in full compliance with Road Map obligations, and based on the UN Security Council resolutions, the Madrid principles including land for peace, the Roadmap, the agreements previously reached by the parties and the Arab peace initiative through:

- An agreement on the borders of the two states, based on the June 4 1967 lines, with equivalent land swaps as may be agreed between the parties.<sup>9</sup> The EU will not recognise any changes to the pre-1967 borders including with regard to Jerusalem, other than those agreed by the parties.<sup>10</sup> The EU reiterates that settlements, the separation barrier where built on occupied land, demolition of homes and evictions, are illegal under international law and constitute an obstacle to peace and threaten to make a two state solution impossible. The EU will continue to ensure that settlement products will not benefit from preferential treatment under the EU-Israel Association Agreement and that settlement activity will not benefit from any sort of EU funding or programmes.
- Recalling that the EU has never recognised the annexation of East Jerusalem, a way must be found through negotiations to resolve the status of Jerusalem as the future capital of two states.
- A just, fair, realistic and agreed solution to the refugee question.
- Security arrangements that, for Palestinians, respect their sovereignty and show that the occupation is over and, for Israelis, protect their security, prevent the resurgence of terrorism and deal effectively with new and emerging threats.
- Control of the Palestinian people over its natural resources, including the equitable and reasonable allocation of transboundary water resources, in line with the relevant norms of international law and to be pursued alongside other final status issues.
- Working on the regional tracks to ensure comprehensive peace in the Middle East.

The EU remains committed to contribute substantially to post-conflict arrangements.

This Action Plan will cover the timeframe of three to five years.

ANNEX: COMPLEMENTARY OBJECTIVES

A. POLITICAL DIMENSION

I. Political dialogue and cooperation

[EU-PLO Political Dialogue]

Deepen bilateral relations as part of a strategic vision towards a fully integrated and sovereign Palestinian state and achieve closer political co-operation and dialogue on the basis of shared values

- (1) Enhance political and strategic dialogue and cooperation on foreign and security policy and hold meetings at different levels and in all fora.<sup>15</sup>
- (2) Establish an annual meeting between the EU and the Palestinian side in line with the Association Council held with other ENP partners.
- (3) Launch, as soon as possible, negotiations on a full Association Agreement, which would formally be concluded upon statehood.
- (4) Intensify contacts between Palestinian Ministers and their European counterparts.
- (5) Hold annual meetings with a Palestinian senior official in the Political and Security Committee (PSC) and schedule additional meetings on an ad-hoc basis.
- (6) Reinforce dialogue and co-operation on conflict prevention, peace and crisis management and in civil protection.
- (7) Increase co-operation in the multilateral framework, including through contributing to UN efforts to resolve regional conflicts and promote effective multilateralism.
- (8) Deepen co-operation in addressing common security threats, including non-proliferation of weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and illegal arms exports.

II. Democracy, rule of law and good governance

[Sub-committee on Human Rights, Good Governance and Rule of Law]

Build a deep and sustainable democracy underpinned by a respect for human rights and the rule of law

<sup>15</sup> The PLO and the EC launched political dialogue in December 2008 based on the 1997 Joint Statement on Political Dialogue. The EU has welcomed positively the request to develop political dialogue in the Letter of Deputy Director General Robert Rydberg (Swedish Ministry of Foreign Affairs) and Director Dupla del Moral (European Commission), 10 December 2009

Elections

- (9) Hold genuine, democratic elections at all levels in line with international standards.
- (10) Strengthen the domestic legal framework to ensure independent domestic and international monitoring and observation of elections, including by civil society.
- (11) Reinforce the role, independence and capacities of the Central Elections Commission and ensure that the institution is supported by sufficient financial resources.
- (12) Take measures to increase women's participation in political and democratic life.

Judiciary

- (13) Pursue efforts towards an independent, impartial and fully-functioning judiciary in line with international human rights standards, ensuring due process, fair trials and enforcement of court orders and decisions.
- (14) Develop legislation, facilitate public access to legal information to ensure equal access to justice to all and set up a fund for legal aid with the adequate structures to ensure its proper administration.
- (15) Regulate through adopting and implementing legislation the jurisdiction of specialized courts including through the separation of civil and military judiciary and limiting the jurisdiction of military tribunals to serving military personnel, whilst keeping civilian courts competent for all human rights and international humanitarian law violations. Improve possibilities for legal redress against violations of human rights and international humanitarian law, as well as access to information on citizens' rights.
- (16) Clarify the responsibilities of the different institutions in the justice sector.

Security

- (17) Step up the reform and development of the Palestinian security sector, institutionalize civilian democratic oversight of the security services and ensure that they operate in full respect of human rights through proper regulation and appropriate training.

Good Governance

- (18) Take all necessary legislative and administrative measures to establish and implement a clear division of powers between the different branches of government.
- (19) Reinforce national efforts to fully implement the National Development Plan (2011-2013) and its successors in liaison with the international donor community.
- (20) Support the PA's efforts to implement the national strategic objective to reform its public administration in order to deliver high quality and efficient public services all over the oPt.

- (21) Develop a functioning legislative framework through formulating a legislative plan, establishing rules to review qualification of legislative initiatives under emergency rule and making full use of the TAIEX instrument for the future preparation of future legislation.

III. Human rights and fundamental freedoms

Ensure the respect of human rights and fundamental freedoms in line with international standards and promote the implementation of international human rights standards

International Humanitarian Law and International Human Rights Law

- (22) Ensure respect for international law, in particular international humanitarian law and international human rights law including as regards Palestinian prisoners and administrative detainees.

Torture and other cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment

- (23) Take all necessary measures to uphold the absolute prohibition of the use of torture and put in place internal and external investigative mechanisms to ensure accountability for those who commit ill-treatment and torture in detention and under interrogation. Establish independent national prevention mechanisms in line with the principles laid down in the Optional Protocol to the UN Convention Against Torture.
- (24) Rehabilitate detention centres in line with international standards, ensure access to all detainees for lawyers, families and human rights organizations and ensure that the relevant Ministries, the public prosecutor and the judiciary are able to regularly monitor detention centres to ensure that proper legal procedures are being implemented.
- (25) Provide access to the Palestinian Independent Commission for Human Rights to files related to investigations of allegations of torture.

Fundamental Freedoms

- (26) Establish a comprehensive Palestinian human rights strategy.
- (27) Adopt a unified penal code which adheres to international human rights standards including the non-application of the death penalty and which strengthens legal guarantees for all fundamental freedoms. Fully abide by the de facto moratorium on the death penalty and work towards a de jure moratorium.
- (28) Bring an end to all arbitrary arrests and remove all requirements for security clearances based on political affiliation in all circumstances (including registration of associations, recruitment to public office, passport issuance etc.).
- (29) Ensure that detentions are carried out only for valid criminal or security reasons and are based on arrest warrants issued by the competent authorities.
- (30) Protect citizens' rights to enjoy their fundamental freedoms and exercise their civil and political human rights, including the freedom of association and assembly, freedom of expression, freedom of religion or belief and freedom of the media through the existence of an adequate national legal framework for the protection of human rights in line with international standards. Consolidate the Palestinian Independent Commission for Human Rights in line with the Paris Principles (UNGA resolution 48/134).

- (31) Protect women's and girls' rights, eliminate all discriminatory provisions in national legislation and provide regular information on the implementation of the National Strategic Plan on combating violence against women, on the implementation of CEDAW and on the Istanbul Plan of Action.
- (32) Protect children's rights and ensure mainstreaming in PA strategies and systems (including the juvenile justice system) in line with the principles laid down in the UN Child rights' conventions, in particular the protocol on involvement of children in armed conflict and ILO convention 182 on the worst forms of child labour.
- (33) Institutionalize a reporting mechanism on the implementation of Law 4/1999 dealing with the rights of the disabled.
- (34) Strengthen the legal framework at all levels to combat racism, xenophobia and discrimination.
- (35) Uphold the rights and protection of human rights' defenders, in line with the UN declaration on human rights defenders (UNGA resolution 53/144).
- (36) Uphold the political, economic, social and cultural rights of people living in the West Bank, including East Jerusalem, and in the Gaza Strip.

Civil society

- (37) Ensure space and transparent registration procedures for civil society in order to reinforce its role and independence in line with national law and international standards.
- (38) Enhance dialogue and consultation between the authorities and civil society organizations.
- (39) Promote a participatory development policy and a national ownership of reforms beyond government ownership by facilitating the involvement of civil society in sector policy dialogues and reform efforts through regular, structured and inclusive multi-stakeholder consultations.

IV. Co-operation in Justice and Home Affairs

Combating racism and xenophobia; fight against discrimination

- (40) Strengthen the legal framework at all levels to combat racism, xenophobia and discrimination.
- (41) Combat hate crimes, including cases motivated by Islamophobia, anti-Semitism and Christianophobia and other beliefs, which can be fuelled by racist and xenophobic propaganda and incitement in the media and on the Internet.
